

The National Epilepsy Association of New Zealand Northland Branch

Epilepsy Northland supports people living with Epilepsy and their whanau/families We have the latest information re Epilepsy and our Educator can provide personal support, information and advocacy.

Services Provided

Home visits to provide education and support for people living with epilepsy and their whanau/family and friends.

Aim: To increase the Management and understanding of Epilepsy.

Life style Management, types of seizures, Medications and services available.

To provide strategies to assist the person with epilepsy gain seizure control and build confidence.

Provide In-service Epilepsy Training for professionals who work with people with epilepsy such as caregivers, community agencies, nurses and teachers.

Educate Staff about Epilepsy in work places and schools to support the person with epilepsy

Recognise seizures and know what to do should a student or colleague have a seizure.

Facilitate meetings between clients when appropriate so they can support each other and share management strategies.

Promote Community awareness through speaking engagements in service clubs, workplaces, schools and recreational clubs.

Check out the events calendar at tiaho.org.nz for FREE Epilepsy Seminars and support groups throughout Northland.

'Please contact us for this free confidential service'.

Contact Details

Physical Address:

Level one upstairs
Civil Arcade
37 Bank Street
Whangarei

Monday - Friday - 8am-5pm

Postal Address:

PO Box 712
Whangarei 0140

Telephone:

09 438-5498

Freephone:

0800 374 537

Email Address:

northland@epilepsy.org.nz

Website Address:

tiaho.org.nz/epilepsy
epilepsy.org.nz