Relating to disability in Northland

Linking people, families and carers living with a disability to information, advice and support in their community.

Visit www.tiaho.org.nz/support to find out more about what services these organisations provide in Northland.

In Northland, there are a range of organisations providing a Disability Information Advisory Service. These are known as the 'Northland DIAS Collective'.

Tiaho Trust supports these organisations by helping to improve the access to and utilisation of their information and services in Northland for you and your family/whānau. Tiaho Trust is your first point of contact if you are unsure who to reach out to or have any questions - call us on: 09 430 3406.

The DIAS Collective provides various services about a specific disability, or disability in general, such as:

- Advice and information
- Advocacy
- Community education and awareness
- Support groups and networking
- Home visits
- Access to health professionals
- Referrals and assessments
- Equipment
- Seminars/workshops
- Resources

Together, Tiaho Trust and the DIAS Collective, empower the Northland community by promoting the disabled community as valued citizens who contribute, participate and add to the diversity of New Zealand society.
